GILES THORNTON 10tet
 The orchestra is comprised of some of the UK's finest jazz musicians, and takes influences from Maria Schneider and Gill Evans. The debut album, "Be In Today", is made up of original compositions and arrangements, written by Giles Thornton. It is sure to be a great night of music! "Thornton does not set out merely to be clever; his aim, in general, is to create beautiful, melodic music, that isn't something one can always take for granted"

Tues 24th Sep £15.50/£12
QUENTIN COLLINS SEXTET
 Quentin Collins Trp, Tom Harrison, Leo Richardson
 Saxes, Steve Hamilton - Piano, Conor Chaplin Bass, Winston Clifford - Drums
 Quentin Collins is, quite simply, a master musician; a tone that remains consistently rich throughout every register, pin-point articulation and, where jazz improvisation is concerned, a crackling delivery, brimming with ideas, that does nothing so much as call the late, great, Freddie Hubbard to mind. Performing material from their new album 'Road Warrior,' the Sextet draws inspiration from the rich tradition of 3-horn frontlines, with an explosive all-star line-up evoking The Jazz Messengers, McCoy Tyner, and Wynton Marsalis.

Weds 25th Sep £15.50/£12

 For anyone who loves the music of Stevie Wonder then this gig is a must see, with some of the finest young musicians in the country coming together in what promises to be an evening of high energy, soulful and uplifting music. The band features the fantastic voice of Phoebe Jane.
Will have the club up and dancing before the night is over!
