Tues 12 July
LARRY STABBINS

Best known for his Latin-tinged soul-jazz group 'Working Week', which recorded and gigged extensively during the 80s. He's also worked with Keith Tippett, Louis Moholo, Tony Oxley, Peter Brotzmann, Trevor Watts' 'Moire Music' and played for several years in the London Jazz Composers Orchestra. His own trio 'Game Theory' has been described by BBC's Jazz on 3 as 'free jazz techno funk':

Tues 9 August
LOUISE PARKER QUINTET

Fresh from this year's Glastonbury Festival Jazz Lounge and Dean Street's Pizza Express, Louise will bring her unique delivery to poignant ballads and gutsy blues and gospel. Jazz classics are treated to her easy rhythmic style and inspirational scatting, with Louise playing with the band rather than in front of it. Influences include Sarah Vaughan, Ella Fitzgerald, Billie Holiday and her father's extensive blue-note collection.
