KILLER SHRIMP

DAMON BROWN (tp), ED JONES (sx), TROY MILLER (db) AND BEN HAZLETON (dm)

Music very much rooted in the jazz tradition but touching on different grooves and textures.

'Damon Brown plays with a warmth and fluidity that allows him to find considerable variations from the norm, therefore making his work worthy of attention. His thoughtful and attentive playing always demonstrates his ability to find greater emotional depths. A gifted composer.' Virgin Encyclopaedia of Jazz.

'Ed Jones may have hit his highest profile through his work with bands US3 and Incognito, but he's an improviser to his fingertips, a player of forceful imagination and one of the UK's most distinctive saxophonists. Capable of an ethereal lyricism as well as thunderous hard bop' John Fordham, The Guardian.

Tues 18 April £6/£4

ALL STARS NIGHT RFT & GUESTS

Our resident trio plus a variety of guests.

Tues 25 April £7/£5

TOMMASO STARACE

With RALPH FREEMAN TRIO featuring Pete Kubryk Townsend

A fine alto player with a warm tone and fiery bebop-influenced jazz idiom.

'Signor Starace plays alto and soprano sax with impressive post-Parkerian felicity and Italian flair.' Evening Standard.

Tues 2 May £6/£4

VIV RODD TRIO + TRURO COLLEGE DEGREE BAND & GUESTS

'Dazzling keyboard artisty ... an inspiration.' Jim Mullen.

Viv bringing us more surprises and amazing new talent from the up-and-comers.

MING HAT

ROD COOMBES (dm), CHRIS FRANCIS (sx), MARCUS VERGETTE (db), AND RALPH FREEMAN (pn)

'... rough, ready, spirited stuff that takes no prisoners. Quirky, idiosyncratic compositions. To say that these guys have been round the block a few times would be an understatement ... basic passionate players, the likes of whom aren't that plentiful these days.' Tony Hall, Jazzwise

Tues 16 May £8/£5

JULIAN JOSEPH Solo Concert

'The most significant jazz musician this country has produced for many years, perhaps ever.' Peter Hepple, The Stage.

'Probably the most talented and exciting jazz pianist to have emerged from the UK.' The Guardian.

Acclaimed by critics and audiences the world over, Julian never fails to inspire with his mastery of the keyboard, the versatility of his musicianship, and the seemingly limitless scope of his creative imagination. As a solo performer he holds audiences rapt from the minute he sits down at the piano, undaunted by either the vastness or intimacy of the platform. As a pianist he is unsurpassed, as a composer he has brought new vitality to the music, and as a descendent of the jazz greats, he is not only fulfilling their legacy, but promises to become a seminal figure for the twenty-first century.
