NIGEL PRICE TRIO

NIGEL PRICE (gt), MATT HOME (dm), PETE WHITTAKER (Hammond)

Winners of the 2010 Parliamentary Jazz Awards for best jazz ensemble, led by one of Britain's finest guitarists Nigel Price — ex James Taylor Quartet and also a regular performer at Ronnie Scott's. His blend of flowing bebop lines, blues feeling and the will to swing has made him instantly accessible and popular with jazz audiences. Matt Home has toured with luminaries such as Scott Hamilton and Jim Mullen, and is a house band regular at Ronnie Scott's. Pete Whittaker, who actually brings the real thing to gigs, has been involved with many jazz projects including Theo Travis' Double Talk and guitarist John Etheridge's Blue Spirits. The band will be playing hard swinging, deeply groovesome jazz: 'Unpretentious swinging fun played with skill and verve.' The Jazzmann.com

Tues 9 October £12/£8

MARK NIGHTINGALE with VIV RODD TRIO

Voted 'Best Trombonist' British Jazz Awards on numerous occasions, Mark is one of the world's leading trombonists. As well as leading his own big band, he has played with a host of luminaries such as: John Dankworth, Cleo Laine, Urbie Green, Carl Fontana, Clark Terry, Alan Barnes, Bill Holman, Claire Martin, John Wilson (conductor), Clark Tracey, and Stan Tracey. He occasionally directs the BBC Big Band and can often be heard in the band's trombone section. He also plays trombone on Sting's album 'Ten Summoner's Tales'.

Tues 16 October £12/£8

DISASSEMBLER

TREVOR WARREN (gt), ANNIE WHITEHEAD (tb), PETE WAREHAM (sx), WINSTON CLIFFORD (dm), DUDLEY PHILLIPS (bass)

Bandleader and guitarist Trevor Warren brings his star studded group to St Ives this week as part of a short tour of the UK. Featuring the wonderful Annie Whitehead on trombone, and this time drafting in a new addition with Pete Wareham (Polar Bear) on sax. This award-winning band continues to forge new directions in the world of modern jazz, employing the many influences of its experienced members: rock, world, reggae, drum n bass ... all are mixed into the musical pot to produce something rich, vibrant and powerful.

Tues 23 October £12/£8

JOHN TURVILLE TRIO

CHRIS HILL (db), BEN REYNOLDS (dm)

One of the leading jazz trios in the UK, comprised of three of the busiest musicians on the London scene. Awarded 'Best Album' in the 2011 Parliamentary Awards, and in 2010 he received both the inaugural London Jazz Award for 'Best Instrumentalist' and the Promoters Award. The trio has toured extensively to great acclaim throughout the UK and Europe, taking in all the major venues and festivals. '... high-end piano trio jazz ... resonating with the work of Keith Jarrett and John Taylor without denying the group's considerable individuality ... who wheel and curve through the shape shifting music as one.'

Tues 30 October £12/£8

JULIAN COSTELLO QUINTET

JULIAN COSTELLO (sx), PATRICK NAYLOR (gt), GEOFF CASTLE (pn), ALEX KEEN (db), MILO FELL (dm)

The Julian Costello Quartet plays contemporary music that incorporates different grooves, moods and colours and is tuneful and melodic. Time Out says, 'delicate and melodic ... saxophone-led original material with nods to Jan Garbarek and Ralph Towner.' Jazzwise Magazine writes, 'Costello is an extremely moody player on both saxophones and his compositions cover many musical areas ... an emotive and soulful tenor player.'

Tues 6 November £12/£8

ROGER BEAUJOLAIS with CRAIG MILVERTON TRIO

NEW ORIGINAL COMPOSITIONS
Brilliant vibraphonist who '... could frighten any vibes virtuoso on either side of the Atlantic.' The Guardian. Tonight both Roger and Craig will be treating us to some of their latest compositions.

BENN CLATWORTHY with VIV RODD TRIO

LA-based Benn Clatworthy is a truly impressive tenor player who Ronnie Scott rated as one of the best UK players that he had ever heard. 'While twenty years in Los Angeles seem to have had little effect Benn Clatworthy's Bow Bells speech, his tenor sax playing has acquired strong US characteristics, not least a tough personal tone and a wide emotional range that extends from ballad tenderness to gladiatorial torrents of controlled aggression at fast tempos.' Chris Lee
'Some of the most emotive and creative jazz this side of Sonny Rollins'. Edinburgh Evening News. 'Astounds everyone'. London Observer

Tues 20 November £12/£8

CHICO CHICA

This exciting new vocal Latin-Jazz band starts with the premise that all players should sing and all singers should play. Hilary Cameron, piano, Tom Hannah, Spanish guitar and Barbara Snow, flugelhorn will be taking it in turns to sing songs from Mélangerie, their first album. This multi-lingual collection of original songs has started to enjoy airplay and media attention.

Tues 27 November £12/£8

THEO JACKSON TRIO

SHANE ALLESSIO (db) and JASON REEVE (dm)

Songwriter, pianist and vocalist Theo Jackson returns to St Ives Jazz Club with his trio. Recently described by Michael Wilson on Jazz FM as, 'one of Britain's finest jazz musicians and singers,' Theo takes inspiration from great singers such as Andy Bey, Kurt Elling, Jon Hendricks and Mark Murphy. Earlier this year Theo opened for saxophonist Bob Mintzer in New Zealand and also appeared alongside Jamie Cullum at a charity fund-raising event. The band will be performing selections from his debut album 'Jericho', which was released earlier this year.

Tues 4 December £12/£8

KAREN SHARP

with CRAIG MILVERTON TRIO

Twice winner of the tenor saxophone category in the British Jazz Awards, but equally at home playing baritone, Karen, in the words of Humphrey Lyttelton, has '... developed into a major artist on the scene.' She spent three years in Humph's band, which took her across the UK and into Europe playing alongside the likes of Joe Temperley, Stacey Kent, Acker Bilk and Elkie Brooks. More recently Karen has been touring with Robert Fowler and has been playing baritone in Alan Barnes' Ellington Band, Arnie Somogyi's Mingus project and the Dankworth Big Band. 'Karen's playing on both saxophones is a perfect blend of poise and passion.' Humphrey Lyttelton. '... an extraordinary talent.' Phil Collins, BBC Radio 2.

Tues 11 December £12/£8

THE CLOUDMAKERS TRIO

JIM HART (vb), DAVE SMITH (dm), MICHAEL JANISCH (db)

Vibraphonist Jim Hart has established himself as one of the premier creative jazz musicians of his generation in the UK. His new group plays original music by Jim that lies somewhere between New York's 'downtown' sound and the modern European tradition. It features his regular sparring partner Dave Smith on drums, and US born, London resident Michael Janisch on bass. As a rhythm section who are as capable of creating raw power as they are abstract sound worlds, they originally formed to collaborate with New York trumpeter Ralph Alessi with whom they recorded their album 'Live at the Pizza'. They have also collaborated with New York alto player Logan Richardson and most recently with Antonin-Tri Hoang from Paris for a BBC Radio 3 broadcast. '... the cream of London's first call rhythm section players.' Jazzwise
